

Roundtable Event

Nurturing an inclusive and supportive research culture and environment in Japanese and UK universities

Abstract

Tohoku University and UCL are creating a cross-cultural, cross-institutional network of researchers, scholars and senior professional service leaders to develop an understanding of, and share best practice on nurturing inclusive and supportive research cultures.

Join us online for an engaging Roundtable in which project academics present initial findings from the joint project : 'Delivering research excellence within an inclusive, diverse and equitable research culture', and expert speakers discuss 'what works' in tackling research culture challenges - a crucial topic for HEIs in today's international research landscape.

Panel speakers

Professor Masahiro Yamaguchi

Vice President, Tohoku University

Dr Frances Morton

Deputy Director of Research Talent Development, ESRC UKRI

Emma Todd

Director of Research Culture, UCL

Mary Assad

Change Manager, UCL

Friday June 7

10:30 - 11:30 GMT

18:30 - 19:30 JST

Register using our
EventBrite page

Find out more about the project:
Delivering resesarch excellence within inclusive, diverse and equitable research culture.

More Information:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/cghe-tohoku-university-online-roundtable-supportive-research-cultures-tickets-893639428587>

Contact:

UK: catherine.fox.18@ucl.ac.uk

Japan: midori.kojima.e8@tohoku.ac.jp