

TOHOKU
UNIVERSITY

The purpose of this award is to recognize female researchers engaged in outstanding research at Tohoku University to further increase their research motivation and foster future world-class leaders. In giving out this award, the university also aims to enhance the DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) of our research environment, and drive the creation of excellent research results.

WHAT IS INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY?

A protest for women's suffrage took place in New York City on March 8, 1904. The demonstrations prompted the United Nations to designate March 8 as "International Women's Day" in 1975. (International Women's Day)".
Language, culture, politics, The Women's Day is held to celebrate the courage and determination of women who have contributed to their country and society, regardless of economic barriers. It is a day to call for the elimination of gender discrimination and the status of women.
